9 Luis F Rodriguez,

10 Plaintiff,

11 v.

12 ACCC Insurance Company, et al.,

13 Defendants.
14

No. CV-16-00998-PHX-ROS

ORDER

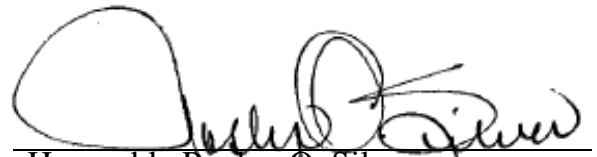

15 Defendant has renewed its motion seeking “an order of permanent injunction and 16 stay” or, alternatively, “a stay of proceedings” for six months. (Doc. 123 at 1). Defendant
17 represents the motion is unopposed. Despite Defendant’s motion representing a second 18 attempt to obtain some form of relief, it remains unclear what Defendant wants. If the 19 parties agree the Court can enter a “permanent injunction” prohibiting Plaintiff from ever
20 pursuing his claims, the Court should enter such an injunction and close the case. But if 21 the parties believe the Court should issue a temporary stay, the case must remain open such 22 that litigation can resume once the stay is lifted. The Court is willing to vacate the present
23 deadlines but if the parties agree a “permanent injunction” is appropriate, there is no point
24 in imposing a stay.

25 Accordingly,

26 IT IS ORDERED the Motion for Permanent Injunction, Motion to Stay (Doc. 123)
27 is GRANTED IN PART. All pretrial deadlines are VACATED to be reset by future
28 order, if appropriate.

1 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED no later than January 22, 2021, the parties shall
2 file a joint statement indicating whether 1) this case should be stayed for six months or 2)
3 a permanent injunction should be issued and the case closed. If an injunction is requested,
4 the parties must set forth the precise terms of that injunction.

5 Dated this 14th day of January, 2021.
